

Scripture: Romans 1:1-17

OPEN:

1. What kinds of letters do you save? Why?
2. What special friends do you pray for often? What has made them so close to you?

DIG:

1. What does Paul's introduction reveal about himself? About the gospel?
2. How would you feel if you received this letter as you read verses 8-13?
3. What excites Paul about the gospel?
4. Suppose you know someone who is turned off about religious words and is skeptical about Christianity. How would you explain verse 17 to them?

REFLECT:

1. How did God call you to Christ? How has that call affected your ambitions and goals?
2. How encouraged are you by our church and our small group? What could improve your encouragement?
3. What mission or task do you sense God is calling you to this year?
